

Drinks," as said section was amended by Chapter 35 of the Acts of the Extraordinary Session of 1933, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

126. The applicant for a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind whatsoever, containing more than 8% of alcohol by volume, shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court upon the issuing of such license the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for one year or such pro rata part of said sum for a shorter period. And any licensee who shall take out said license shall have the right to sell beer and all other alcoholic drinks or beverages of any alcoholic contents. The applicant for a license to sell wine, beer or other spirituous or fermented beverages, containing less than 8% of alcohol by volume, shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court upon the issuing of such license the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for one year or such pro rata part of said sum for a shorter period. All the funds received by the Clerk of the Circuit Court under the provisions of this section, less the Clerk's fee and any refunds, shall be paid over by him to the County Commissioners of St. Mary's County. The funds thus received by the County Commissioners prior to May 1, 1937, not exceeding seven thousand dollars ($7,000.00) in any scholastic year, shall be used for the transportation to and from school of children attending any school in St. Mary's County not receiving State Aid. Any amount in excess of seven thousand dollars ($7,000.00) so received by the County Commissioners shall be used by them in reducing the tax required to be levied for the public schools of said County by the General State Law. The said County Commissioners shall include in their annual statement of expenses an itemized statement of the expenditures made under the provisions of this section.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00).

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.
